2011-2018

The picture above is on the day I won The Sidney Nolan Trust Award. The artwork is called Dysfunctional Ideology 2021. The award is a week long artist residency at The Sidney Nolan Trust. I am continuing on an art programme called Culitvate which is also part of the Trust programme.

After studying A-Levels in Art (A*), Children's Learning and Development (Merit) and Psychology (D) I went on to Hereford College of Arts to study a BA (Hons) Fine Art degree.

I have just accepted a job as a support worker and hope to incorporate my passion for art within the role.
