

Harvey Roach

2015-2017

I studied at Tudor Grange Academy Sixth Form after attending another local secondary school.

The Sixth Form subjects I studied were Business Studies, Philosophy & Ethics and English Literature and I then went on to Bath Spa University to study Business Management where I gained a 2:1 BA Hons. Degree.

I am now living and working in London for Fourier. I work within a team of experienced recruiters specialising in information technology, trading technology and quant analytics. Providing contract and permanent personnel to investment banks, proprietary traders, hedge funds and FinTechs.
