

LOTUS GRID- HOW?

1. Create a 9 x 9 grid like the one shown.
2. In the middle square write down the topic of your revision.
3. In the squares around the middle topic, write down the sub-topics or questions that directly connect to the overall topic.
4. Now write each of the sub-topics into the middle of their own grid (using colours may help).
5. For each sub-topic, write your consolidation notes about it in the eight squares available.

LOTUS GRID- WHY?

Lotus grids are great for linking information or applying key information to a variety of sub-topics or examples.
