

Niamh Allen

2012-2019

I studied psychology, English Language and history at Tudor Grange Sixth Form and went on to complete a Criminology and Psychology degree at the University of Worcester.

I have been fortunate enough to accept a full time role with West Mercia as a Telephone Investigator, but hope to progress into victim support in the future with aspirations of completing a Masters in counselling.